

Stockmeier Urethanes To Expand Clarksburg Plant

The Associated Press

CLARKSBURG, W.Va. (AP) — Stockmeier Urethanes USA Inc. plans to expand its operations in Clarksburg.

President and CEO Christian Martinkat tells The Exponent Telegram (<http://bit.ly/11bF2Au> [1] ) that the company is acquiring three-and-a-half to 4 acres and an office building adjacent to its plant from Thrasher Real Estate Investment LLC. The cost of the acquisition is $1.85 million.

Martinkat attributes the expansion to the economy's improvement and a growing market for the company's polyurethane systems.
