The new EZ-Lock Spindle Coupling Kits from Brookfield Engineering (Middleboro, MA) are now available for the Helipath Stand, DIN Adapter, Thermosel, and the Vane Spindle Set. The Spindle Coupling allows technicians to easily attach and detach spindles, and features of the individual kits include:

- A UL Adapter for low viscosity materials.
- Easily measurement of non-flowing substances like gels, pastes, and putty with the Helipath Stand.
- Elevated temperature settings with Thermosel.
- Compliance with DIN 53019 requirements with the DIN Adapter.
