

Stoody Ordering, Simplified

Stoody (St. Louis, MO) announces a new system that eliminates the need to place separate purchase orders for Stoody and other Thermadyne products. The new system will enable customers to order all Thermadyne-branded products on a single order, with the total order being applied to free freight minimums. A single "remit to" is also provided for easy of payment. In addition, Stoody is offering reduced pricing on all position and flat horizontal flux cored stainless wires.
