

A Better Cutting Oil

Rustlick (Glenview, IL), a subsidiary of ITW ROCOL North America, has announced the release of ULTRACUT Aero, a new premium water-soluble oil optimized for high-tech ferrous and nonferrous metals, including titanium, aluminum, Inconel, and stainless steel. The Aero uses the latest lubrication and antimicrobial technologies to create a long-lasting cutting fluid. Additional features include:

- A non-chlorinated solution that has boundary lubricants and extreme pressure additives for great surface finish and longer tool life.
- The lack of chlorine, sulfur, boron, phenol, nitrites, copper, or SARA 313 reportable chemistry.
