

NewAge Nylotube

NewAge

NewAge's (Southampton, PA) nylon-12 tubing, Nylotube®, provides light weight corrosion, abrasion, and chemical resistance. It withstands repeated flexing and is ideal for retractable coils. Nylotube also offers very low moisture absorption, plus excellent bend radii and pressure ratings. Applications include pneumatics and a wide variety of fluid transfer. Nylotube is stocked in two grades—flexible and semi-rigid. Inch sizes up to 1-inch O.D. and metric sizes up to 12 millimeters O.D. are available. Six colors are offered, making line identification quick and easy. NewAge also stocks nylon-11 tubing in limited supply.
