

Industrial Automation Microsite

Newark element14

Newark element14 (Chicago, IL) has launched an easy-to-use industrial automation microsite, developed to help engineers in design or plant maintenance roles more efficiently research and source products. The microsite at www.newark.com/industrialautomation [1] offers extensive information produced by Newark element14's technical support team, plus the latest data and technology products from the world's top suppliers. Products from these best-in-class suppliers are available for same-day shipping and can be accessed from a dedicated catalog on the site that can be customized to customer preferences.

Check it out at www.newark.com/industrialautomation [1].
