

High-Performance Lubricants

Ultrachem

Ultrachem (New Castle, DE) will be exhibiting its line of high-performance synthetic lubricants, greases, and oils at Hannover Messe 2013 in the ComVac Hall (26), Stand E19. Ultrachem will be the only lubricant manufacturer in the ComVac Hall this year. Established in 1965, Ultrachem is one of the oldest specialty synthetic lubricant compounders and has become a leading supplier to the OEM and industrial maintenance markets, according to the company. Ultrachem offers a wide range of products including food grade lubricants, impregnating oils and gels, high pressure compression lubricants, and gas compression lubricants. Ultrachem is a member of the Independent Lubricant Manufacturers Association \(ILMA\) [1].
